

For Immediate Release

Northstar President Fred Taylor Appointed Chairman of Children's Hospital Colorado Foundation Board

Denver, CO – Northstar President and Co-Founder Fred Taylor has been elected chairman of Children's Hospital Colorado Foundation's Board of Trustees. Taylor formerly served as vice-chair and treasurer of the Foundation's Board. He will serve a two-year term.

Taylor has been trustee since 1999 and chaired the hospital's investment committee for 18 years. Taylor's family has a long history of involvement with the Foundation and Children's Hospital. Taylor's father, Moses Taylor, was one of the Foundation's original trustees and served on the board for 24 years. Taylor also credits the hospital for saving his son's life when he suffered a brain aneurysm at the age of seven.

"Serving Children's Hospital has been a privilege. The hospital plays such an important role in the community and I am honored to help the Foundation support the hospital's mission," said Taylor.

A longtime supporter of Denver's nonprofit community, Taylor has lent his financial acumen to many local charities and is currently the vice chair of the CollegeInvest Board of Directors. He is past chairman of the investment committees of The Denver Foundation, The Women's Foundation of Colorado, the Colorado Zoological Trust and Kent Denver School.

Established in 1995, Denver-based Northstar Investment Advisors LLC is an independent registered investment advisor serving individuals and families. Northstar employs an Income First Total Return investment strategy, focused on creating growing and sustainable income streams from a diversified portfolio of income-producing securities for those who need to live off their money.

###